1.3 No modification of these Conditions shall be effective unless made by an express written agreement between the Buyer and the Seller. The signing by the Seller of any of the Buyer's documentation howsoever arising shall not imply any modification of these Conditions.

1.4 In the event of a conflict between the Contract and these Conditions, the terms of the Contract shall prevail.

2. THE GOODS

2.1 The description, specification, purpose of use and the quantity of Goods shall be set out in the Contract.

2.2 The Seller has unencumbered and perfect title to Goods and Goods are free and clear of all legal injunctive relieves, pledges, taxes, lien and any other encumbrances.

2.3 The Buyer is responsible for ensuring that the terms of its order and any applicable specification (if applicable) are complete and accurate, and shall determine the suitability of the Goods for its intended use.

2.4 The Buyer acknowledges that it has not relied on any statement, promise, representation, assurance or warranty made or given by or on behalf of the Seller that is not set out in the Contract. So long as the Goods supplied are of sound commercial quality, there is no guarantee of their suitability for any specific purpose, even if that purpose is known to the Seller.

3. PRICE & PAYMENT

3.1 The price to be paid for the Goods shall be set out in the Contract.

3.2 The total Contract value shall be computed based on the waybill(s) quantity and the agreed Goods unit price as stated in the Contract.

3.3 Payment for the Goods shall be made to the Seller in full in currency as stated and agreed by the Parties as set out in the Contract without any deduction, withholding or setoff whatsoever and within the period set out in the Contract.

In the event that the payment period is not stipulated in the Contract, the Buyer makes 100% advance payment. Payment shall be made to the Seller's bank account specified in the Contract.

3.4 If full payment is not received by the Seller as aforesaid, the Buyer shall pay the Seller interest on the amount outstanding at the rate of fifteen (15) per cent per annum for the period of delay beginning on the due date until the date of payment.

The Buyer's default on payment shall be deemed a material breach of the Contract.

3.5 Subject to the applicable law, notwithstanding that the property in the Goods may have passed to the Buyer, the unpaid Seller of Goods, as such, has by implication of law:

- (a) a lien on the Goods or right to retain them for the price while he is in possession of them;
- (b) in case of the insolvency of the Buyer, a right of stopping the Goods in transit after he has parted with the possession of them;
- (c) a right of re-sale of Goods as limited by applicable law.

Where the property in Goods has not passed to the Buyer, the unpaid Seller has (in addition to his other remedies) a right of withholding delivery similar to and co-extensive with his rights of lien or retention and stoppage in transit where the property has passed to the Buyer.

3.6 The Seller may at any time, without limiting any other rights or remedies it may have, set off any amount (including but not limited to any value of the Goods, any interest, any damages, any demurrage, any storage and insurance charges) owing to the Seller by the Buyer against any amount payable by the Seller to the Buyer.

The Seller shall have the right to set off any payment due under the Contract against any payment obligations under other contracts with the Buyer.

3.7 Payment shall be in accordance with the payment method set out in the Contract. All banking charges imposed or levied by the bank making the payment for telegraphic transfers shall be for the account of Buyer and all banking charges imposed or levied by the bank receiving the payment (if any) shall be for the account of Seller.

3.8 The Seller will pay all taxes or other charges imposed upon Goods which accrue or are incurred by Seller prior to transfer of risk in Goods to the Buyer. The Buyer will pay all taxes or other charges imposed upon Goods which accrue or are incurred after transfer of risk in Goods to the Buyer, unless otherwise stated in the contract.

3.9 If, in Seller's judgment, reasonable doubt exists as to Buyer's financial responsibility, or if the Buyer is past due in payment of any amount whatsoever owing to the Seller, the Seller shall have the right, without prejudice to any other remedies, to suspend performance, decline to ship, or stop any Goods in transit, until the Seller receives payment of all amounts owing to the Seller, or adequate assurance of such payment. The Buyer shall indemnify the Seller from and against any and all Indemnified Amounts awarded against or incurred by the Seller and resulting from the Buyer's default in payment of any amount whatsoever owing to the Seller.

3.10 The Buyer shall furnish the Seller within five (5) Business Days of receipt a request with statements evidencing Buyer's financial condition as the Seller may, from time to time, reasonably request, and shall notify the Seller immediately of any and all events that may have a material adverse effect on Buyer's business or financial condition. If the Seller determines in its sole discretion that Buyer's financial condition or creditworthiness is inadequate or unsatisfactory or the Buyer's Available Credit Limit becomes insufficient, the Buyer shall confirm readiness to prepay for the value of the Goods over the Buyer's Credit limit before shipment. In case such confirmation is not received within three (3) calendar days after Seller's notification of inadequacy of creditworthiness, the Seller may without liability or penalty take any of the following actions:

- (a) accelerate all amounts owed by the Buyer to the Seller under the Contract and on any individual transaction;
- (b) on written notice, modify the payment terms, including requiring the Buyer to pay cash in advance;
- (c) delay any further shipment of the Goods to the Buyer over Buyer's Available Credit Limit;
- (d) stop the unpaid Goods in transit;
- (e) require the Buyer to provide guarantee(s) from a reliable guarantor (creditworthiness of Guarantor will be defined and determined solely by Seller) to secure its payment obligations; or
- (f) any combination of the above.

In case the Buyer fails to cooperate and resolve the credit issue within three (3) calendar days, then the Seller may in addition to all rights listed above and otherwise available at law or in equity, and without liability or penalty take any or all of the following actions:

- (a) on written notice, suspend or cancel immediately the Contract in whole or in part;
- (b) exercise its right of lien; or
- (c) exercise its right to resell;

No actions taken by the Seller under this Clause (nor any failure of the Seller to act under this Clause) constitute a waiver by the Seller of any of its rights to enforce Buyer's obligations under the Contract including, but not limited to the obligation of the Buyer to make payments as required under the Contract.

3.11 The Seller shall prior or on the date of the Contract notify the Buyer in writing of the Buyer's Credit Limit including the amount and term of credit and payment terms for the Goods. The payment method for the Goods under the Contract shall be adjusted to the payment terms of the Buyer's Credit Limit. The Seller may from time to time notify the Buyer in writing of the Buyer's Available Credit Limit.

4. RISK OF LOSS AND TITLE

4.1 Risk of damage to or loss of Goods shall pass to Buyer in accordance with the agreed delivery terms stipulated in the Contract.

4.2 Unless otherwise agreed by the Parties the following rules shall apply to the title of the Goods:

(a) where the Seller receives the whole of price of the Goods prior the delivery of the Goods the title of the Goods shall pass to the Buyer at the time of delivery of the Goods, or

(b) where the payment for the Goods is made after the delivery of the Goods the title of the Goods shall pass to the Buyer at the time when the Seller receives the whole of the price of the Goods, and

(c) where the Seller has delivered to the Buyer the documents of title to the Goods the Seller reserves the right of disposal until the full amount of price is received by the Seller.

5. DELIVERY TERMS

5.1 A delivery shall be affected as agreed in the Contract under the INCOTERMS 2010 rules (ICC Publication No. 715)

5.2. Notwithstanding the quantity ordered and stated in the Contract, an operational tolerance (percentage as specified under the Contract) shall be allowed for each shipment at Seller's option with an adjustment in the price.

5.3 Should the Seller be prevented from or hindered in delivering the Goods or any part thereof by reason of a Force Majeure Event, the Seller reserves the right to cancel or suspend the whole or part of any delivery. In the event the Seller decides to suspend the delivery, the time for delivery shall be extended by a period equal to that during which the cause preventing or hindering delivery exists.

5.4 Where the Seller delivers the Goods by instalments, any delay in delivery or defect in an instalment shall not entitle the Buyer to cancel any other instalment.

5.5 The Seller shall not in any way be liable to compensate the Buyer in damages or otherwise for non-delivery or late delivery of the Goods or any part of them for whatever reason or for any loss arising therefrom unless the Buyer's claims are submitted in writing within 30 days of the delivery date and provided the documents to support the claim. If the Seller has not received such claims within such time, the Buyer shall be deemed to have waived all claims in respect thereto, and such claims shall be forever barred.

5.6 The Buyer shall pay to the Seller demurrage of any vessel, rail car or other vehicle chartered/rented by the Seller to deliver the Goods when such demurrage is not resulting from gross negligence or wilful misconduct on the part of the Seller. The rate of demurrage is specified in the relevant contract of carriage/bill of lading/way bill or such other document. Any agreed demurrages and any other costs incurred by the Seller and related to the transport of the Goods in accordance with Contract, shall be payable by the Buyer within three (3) Business Days after receipt of invoice from the Seller. Any delay in payment will be subject to interest at the rate of fifteen (15) per cent per annum from date of maturity until final receipt of funds by the Seller.

5.7. If the Buyer fails to take delivery of the Goods or any part of them at the time of delivery and/or fails to provide any instructions, documents, licences, consents or authorisations required to enable the Goods to be delivered on that time, the Seller shall be entitled upon given written notice to the Buyer to store or arrange for the storage of the Goods and then notwithstanding the provision of Clause 4 of these Conditions risk in the Goods shall pass to the Buyer, delivery shall be deemed to have taken place and the Buyer shall pay to the Seller all costs and expenses including storage and insurance charges arising from such failure.

5.8. Where the Buyer wrongfully neglects or refuses to accept and pay for the Goods, the Seller may maintain an action against him for damages for non-acceptance. The measure of damages is the estimated loss directly and naturally resulting, in the ordinary course of events, from the Buyer's breach of contract. Where there is an available market for the Goods the measure of damages is prima facie to be ascertained by the difference between the Contract price and the market or current price at the time or times when the Goods ought to have been accepted or (if no time was fixed for acceptance) at the time of the refusal to accept.

6. WARRANTY OF QUALITY

6.1 The Seller warrants that the Goods will meet the specifications as set out in the Contract or any annexes to it. Save as aforesaid, any and all conditions, warranties or representations relating to Goods quality, condition, merchantability or their suitability or fitness for any purpose whatsoever, whether express or implied and whether by law or in oral or written statements made by or on behalf of Seller to Buyer are hereby excluded (save to the extent that exclusion thereof is not permitted or is ineffective by operation of law).

6.2 Where Buyer has established that Goods have upon delivery failed to comply with the Goods specifications, and Buyer gives written notice supported with documents of such defect to Seller within thirty (30) days of such delivery, Buyer's sole and exclusive remedy for breach of Seller's warranty in respect of Goods quality shall be an abatement of the price of the Goods to be mutually agreed between the Parties. If the Seller has not received such notice within such time, the Buyer shall be deemed to have waived all claims in respect thereto, and the Buyer's claims shall be forever barred.

6.3. Unless otherwise agreed by the Parties the inspection of the Goods shall be made upon delivery by an independent testing laboratory nominated by the Seller and at its expense. The results of such independent testing laboratory shall be final and binding for the Parties.

7. PRODUCT SAFETY

7.1 The Buyer acknowledges that Goods may be hazardous if so indicated in the Product's Material Safety Data Sheet (MSDS) and that it is familiar with, and shall take all steps necessary to inform, warn, and familiarize its employees, agents, customers, and contractors who may handle Goods, of all hazards pertaining to and proper procedures for safe use of Goods and of the containers or equipment in which Goods may be handled, shipped, or stored.

8. INDEMNITY

8.1 The Buyer shall indemnify the Seller from and against any and all damages, losses, claims, taxes, liabilities and related costs and expenses, including reasonable legal fees and disbursements (all of the foregoing being collectively referred to as "Indemnified Amounts") awarded against or incurred by the Seller arising out of or resulting from:

- (i) Buyer's failure to inform, warn and familiarize its employees, agents, customers, and contractors of all hazards pertaining to and proper procedures for safe use of Goods and of the containers or equipment in which Goods may be handled, shipped, or stored; or
- (ii) Buyer's breach of any of its obligations under the Contract; or
- (iii) Buyer's breach of its warranties and representations given herein; or
- (iii) any conflict, claim or dispute which has been raised in good faith and writing by the Seller or against the Seller in connection with the Contract.

8.2 The Buyer shall be under no liability under this Clause 8 to pay Indemnified Amounts resulting from gross negligence or wilful misconduct on the part of the Seller.

9. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

9.1 To the extent that the Seller's liability under the applicable law may be excluded, Seller shall not in any way be liable for loss, injury, damage or expenses of whatever nature which result, whether directly or indirectly, from the purchase, import, ownership, possession, storage, use, defect, and failure of the Goods sold pursuant to the Contract.

9.2 If Clause 9.1 does not apply for any reason whatsoever; or in circumstances where the Seller has not effectively excluded liability to the Buyer under or in connection with the Contract, Seller's aggregate liability to Buyer, in connection with Goods or in connection with the Seller's obligations under the Contract, shall be limited to the price payable or paid by the Buyer for the Goods to which such claim, demand, loss, injury, damage or expenses relates.

9.3 In no event, including the negligent act or omission on its part, shall either Party be liable to the other, whether under the Contract or otherwise in connection with it, or in contract, tort, negligence, equity, breach of statutory duty or otherwise howsoever arising, in respect of:

(i) any special, incidental, punitive, indirect or consequential losses or expenses (whether or not foreseeable); and

(c) loss of use; and

(d) loss of commercial opportunities whether or not foreseeable.

10. TERMINATION

10.1 Either Party may terminate the Contract immediately upon written notification to the other Party and such termination of the Contract shall be effective upon the receipt of such notice by the other Party if:

10.2 The termination of the Contract for any cause whatsoever: (i) is not an exclusive remedy, and the Parties shall be entitled to pursue any and all other available claims, rights and remedies they may have against each other arising from the event or events resulting in termination, and (ii) shall not release a Party from any liability which at the time of termination has already accrued to the other Party or which may thereafter accrue in respect of any act or omission prior to such termination including, without limitation, Buyer's obligation to pay the Seller for the Goods delivered prior to the date of termination.

10.3 The Seller shall have the right to terminate the Contract immediately upon notice to the Buyer when (i) the Buyer is in breach of any representations and warranties set forth herein or (ii) the Seller has reasons to believe that the Buyer may or will be in breach of such representations and warranties or (iii) the Seller has reasons to believe that any activities of or business with the Buyer or the Agent or delivery to an Off-taker will cause the Seller (or Seller's subsidiary or an affiliate if any) to be in violation of any applicable laws (including but not limited to Sanctions Laws), statutes, rules and regulations. The Buyer waives its right to claim the Seller for all damages, losses, liabilities and related costs and expenses which the Buyer may have as a result of such termination; and the Seller shall have the right to pursue any legal rights in relation thereto against the Buyer.

10.4 Unless otherwise stated herein or agreed by the Parties neither Party shall be entitled to cancel the Contract without the consent of the other Party, which if given, shall be deemed to be on the express condition that the other Party shall be indemnified against all loss, damage, claims or actions arising out of such a cancellation.

14.4 When the Seller has reasonable belief that:

- (a) the existence of any Sanctions Laws (including any Sanctions Laws coming into effect after entry into the Contract) would have the effect that the Seller would breach any Sanctions Laws by performing an obligation under the Contract, or
- (b) the Buyer breaches obligations given in this Clause 14, or
- (c) the Buyer becomes a Sanctions Restricted Person,

then the Seller shall have right at its discretion:

- (i) to suspend performance of the Contract, for so long time as the performance of the Contract continues to be affected by the Sanctions Laws, or

17.5 The award or judgment of the arbitration shall be final and binding upon both Parties and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the award or judgment or in any other manner provided by law.

20.2 If any provision or part-provision of the Contract is or becomes invalid, illegal or unenforceable, it shall be deemed modified to the minimum extent necessary to make it valid, legal and enforceable. If such modification is not possible, the relevant provision or part-provision shall be deemed deleted. Any modification to or deletion of a provision or part-provision under the Contract shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the rest of the Contract.

20.3 Nothing in the Contract shall be construed as a requirement or an agreement of either Party to comply with any laws that would be prohibited under laws applicable to the Parties.
